

March 2013 Volume 31 Issue 2

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT – Susan Price

Hopefully by the time you receive this newsletter, spring weather will be upon us. As I write this, there is a forecast for overnight rain and snow, and I am hoping for more rain than snow. I am ready for some warmer weather!

If you joined us for our March meeting in Culpeper, you'll know that we enjoyed a fun-filled workshop in spite of a snow storm a few days before. Enough snow was melted and cleared and power restored in town so that our meeting went on as planned. The Culpeper Quilt Guild was a gracious host, greeting us with tourist info and shopping discounts at the hotel, and a hot pad for each attendee at the meeting. We had 3 great classes, including a table runner/ placemat combo, wrapped fabric bowls, and a "fractured view" wall hanging. In addition, a group worked on pillowcases for our community service project. Between finished pillowcases brought to the meeting and those made that day, 175 finished cases were sent on to be distributed. Another group made progress on projects of their own choosing in Come Quilt with Me.

We had some new members with us and hope to see them again at our May meeting. Although our lunch was a bit late, we were able to get through the business meeting while we waited so that we were ready to go back to class right after lunch. More details of the business meeting can be found in the minutes in this newsletter.

Our May meeting will be held in Blackstone at the Methodist Retreat Center. We will be staying at the center on Friday night and hold our workshop there on Saturday. The room fee, breakfast and lunch on Saturday will all be included in your registration fee. There is also the option to stay on your own at a local motel if you prefer and/or come join us for the Saturday workshop & lunch if you live close by. Keep reading for more information about the workshop and registration.

Our Celebration committee chaired by Heather Zavagnin is hard at work planning the 2014 retreat at Smith Mountain Lake. Their theme, "Quilting...It's Timeless", was illustrated at the March meeting with a parade of committee members wearing hats from various decades – past, present and future. Hmm...what could they have in store for us in April 2014? You'll have to sign up to see – registration opens at the August meeting this year.

We are still looking for 2 locations for meetings in 2014. If your local guild would like to host us, we would love to visit your corner of Virginia! Please contact any member of the board for more information.

Hope to see you in Blackstone on May 10-11; even though it's Mother's Day weekend, you can come enjoy some quilting fun and friends and still be home in time to celebrate with family on Sunday. See you soon!

Susan Price
President

Board Meeting: Friday, May 10th @ 6:00 pm in Blackstone Methodist Retreat Boardroom. Celebration Board meeting immediately following.

Debi Harding, Facilities, informed the membership that rooms in Blackstone will be used for workshops only and due to contract issues, a hotel close by will

Workshop A: Seasonal Wreath with Karen Sievert

Skill level: Intermediate

Machine class: You'd be surprised, pleasantly so! at how quickly this little quilt goes together! I love the fact that I can hang it at Christmas time, but also, that I can make other versions to reflect all the seasons of the year! Can't you see it as a fall wreath, with all those beautiful reds, oranges, golds and greens? How about the soft pastels of spring, or the warm and vibrant colors of summer? So many options, so little time!
Finished Quilt: 38" x 38"

Materials & Supply List:

About Your Teacher – Karen Sievert: Karen began her quilt making journey in 1997 when her sister dragged her into a quilt shop, firmly stating that she needed a hobby! Immediately hooked, Karen has been quilting, designing and teaching ever since. Her passion has led her to 2 quilt shops, several national awards, and finally 2 books. What Karen loves most...well, the many friendships she's made through quilting! Whether a shop owner, teacher, customer, or quilting friend, Karen has learned from them all and feels blessed to be among such an elite group. "Quilters are the Best!" she says! Karen's book, "Better Together" is about one and two block patterns, that when combined create gorgeous and unexpected designs. Her second book "Prairie Point Pizzazz" features how to use prairie points in the body of the quilt adding a new and unexpected dimension. As well as revealing some beautiful quilts, Karen is known for sharing her heart, her sense of humor, and most importantly to us quilters, some really great ideas and techniques.

CELEBRATION 2014 NEWS

The Celebration 2014 Committee Members would like to challenge you, tease you, inspire you, and most importantly, educate you. So, from now until April 2014, we will pose questions regarding different aspects of quilting and sewing for you to answer. We are calling them our Celebrations Challenge Questions or CCQ.

Please write your name and answer on a 3x 5 index card and bring it to the upcoming VCQ meeting. At each meeting we will collect the cards and draw ONE winner. Your answer must be correct and you need to be present to win.

Celebrations Challenge Question (CCQ) One:

Who was the Russian businessman who started out dressing people? But for the last thirty years his family business has aided quilters in their quilt designs?

Don't forget to bring your correct CCQ answer to the next VCQ meeting in May.
